Mr. Jordan Cain
Director: Anonymous Blue

Jordan Cain is the Director of Bands and Orchestra at Homestead High School. Homestead’s storied music program includes 3 concert bands, 3 jazz bands, 1 symphony orchestra, and the marching band called the Spartan Alliance Band. Mr. Cain is the conductor of the Wind Ensemble, Symphony Orchestra, leader of the Spartan Alliance Band, and director of the Anonymous Blue show choir band. He assists with Homestead’s Concert Band and 2 middle school band programs at Summit Middle School and Woodside Middle School. Mr. Cain’s ensembles consistently earn high ratings at state and national festivals. Prior to his appointment at Homestead, he was a band director at Snider High School (IN) and Canyon High School (CA). He started his teaching career at Creekside Middle School in his home state of California in 2018.

Mr. Cain received his Bachelors Degree in Music Education and Minor in Wind Conducting from the Jacobs School of Music at Indiana University. He studied tenor trombone with M. Dee Stewart of the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, Jared Rodin of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, and bass trombone with Denson Paul Pollard of the Metropolitan Opera. While studying abroad in Vienna, Austria, he also studied tenor trombone with William McElheney of the Vienna Philharmonic.

Mrs. Miranda Good

Miranda Good is the director of Class Act as well as the choral director at Woodside Middle School. Miranda graduated from Goshen College in 2016 with a degree in music education and has been teaching ever since. Throughout her teaching career thus far she has taught all levels, including preschool all the way through high school. She is happy to be back in a middle school environment. This is her first year with Southwest Allen County Schools and she has already made an impact on the community here. Miranda started an after-school musical theater program this fall at Woodside, producing “The Grunch (A New Children’s Musical)”. Miranda has been heavily involved in theater throughout her career in multiple capacities including acting in and directing musicals, plays, and opera. She hopes to continue the musical theater program at Woodside next fall.

This year was Good’s first season directing show choir, and she has greatly enjoyed collaborating with Homestead and Andrew Sherman to help make our program more cohesive. She can’t wait to see what next season has in store. Miranda is so glad to be a part of the SACS music faculty and can’t wait to continue to grow the choral program at the middle school level.

Vincent,

Best of luck this season! We are so proud of you!

Love,

Mom, Dad

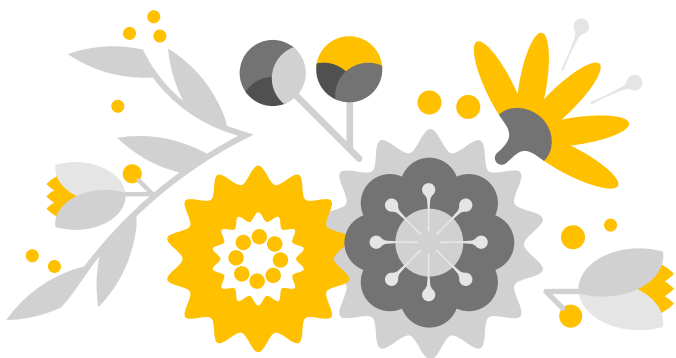

Carisa,

As one chapter of your life closes and another begins, cherish the memories and friendships you've made! Enjoy your senior year! You are amazing and have made us very proud!

We Love You,

Mom, Dad, DeShane

Mia,

Since kindergarten, you have amazed us with your musical and dance talent. Starting with dance classes when you were 6, honors choir in 5th grade, the Civic Theater's Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (our favorite!), as a lullaby league ballerina in St. Francis University's Wizard of Oz, Class Act show choir, Elite show choir and now Class Royale show choir and finally your first ever concert where you sang on stage with Foreigner. Life without choir would "B flat". How endless hours of work all comes down to 3 minutes on stage and the only thing you can do is keep calm and sing on! These next few months will be flying by so enjoy them while you can because every "minute" counts. Before long you will be onto your next chapter in life but always remember this; there are 2 types of people in the world and people in choir are better than both of them. :)

We are so very proud of the person you have become and can't wait to see what the future brings to you, so live, love and sing.

We love you so very much,

Mom & Dad, Katie & Rolland, Hailey & Nate, Grandma & Lyla and... your brother Frasier Cranium :)

Nolan,

We are so very proud of you and love watching you perform in Class Royale! Keep dreaming big and have fun in show choir this year!

We Love You,

Mom, Dad, Nathan, Landon

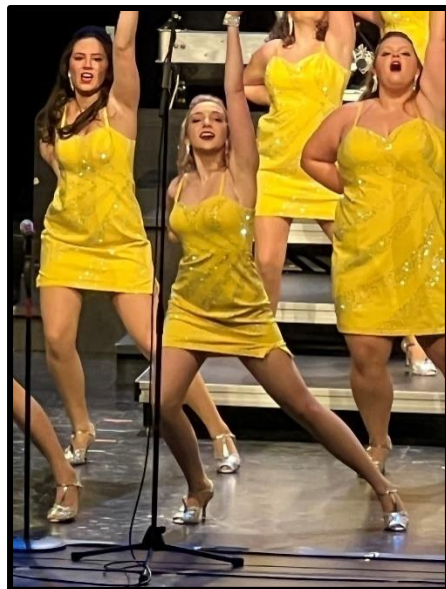

Sara,

We are so proud of you! Can't wait to see what this season will bring! We love you, Poot!

Love,

Mom, Dad, Mallie, Grace, Blake, Erin & Cade
